The Grand Premier of “Jonah” in the “Dutch Country”
 Providence Retired Club
 May 2nd & 3rd, 2012

Lancaster, Pennsylvania is synonymous with the Amish and the picturesque landscape of their manicured farmlands. Rolling fields of corn and wheat, horse and buggies dotting the small country byways and family homesteads, paint a picture in time that has remained unchanged for decades. A biblical lifestyle, the Amish, manifest life in a belief system reflecting humility, modesty, obedience, equality and simplicity. This is quite evident in their simple style of dress, mode of transportation and a lifestyle that does not include any of the modern day comforts.

The Grand Premier of “Jonah” at Sight & Sound’s Millennium Theatre promises to be one of their most outstanding performances yet! The biblical story portrays a faithful and righteous prophet of God who suddenly disobeys and runs away! As a result, he encounters a terrifying storm, an enormous fish, a tiny worm, a mighty wind, a blazing sun, a wicked empire, and the greatest revival in history! “Jonah” is a story of extremes and through it all, God reveals His extreme mercy and love for all. You’ll be on the edge of your seat and in the heart of the action from the start. As always, incredible sets, costumes, lighting and special effects set the stage for a performance that is uplifting, entertaining and powerful with an emotional and timely message of God’s love.

Enjoy the hilarious comedy . . . The Dixie Swim Club at the Rainbow Dinner Theatre. Gentlemen, it's time you find out what women talk about when they get together. The former members of a girl’s college swim team gather at the same beach house once every year. As they reminisce and catch up on their lives, they’ll leave you laughing so hard you’ll gasp for air! It’s a funny, beautiful story of friendship that no one should miss.

Because of its relationship with the Amish, the “Dutch Country” is well known for its furniture making, crafts shops and Farmers Markets. Fresh produce, meats, cheeses, dairy, just baked breads and confectionary goods are sold fresh off the shelves. If this isn’t enough to rouse your appetite, Lancaster is the ultimate place for “Smorgasbords.” Quality home-cooked meals, made from the freshest of ingredients, keep visitors coming back year after year.

Come join Bobby and the group on their fabulous Spring tour to the Dutch Country! You’ll be so glad you did.
